From the history of Russian ABC

“Букварь – книга, открывающая мир литературы”

An alphabet book is a book primarily designed for young children. It presents letters of the alphabet with corresponding words and/or images. Some alphabet books feature capitals and lower case letter forms, keywords beginning with specific letters, or illustrations of keywords. Alphabet books may consist of sentences, paragraphs, or entire pages highlighting letters and corresponding keywords in a variety of creative and imaginative formats.

The research project "Букварь – книга, открывающая мир литературы" was created by the pupils of the 1st grade Daria Keller, Zlata Zaspanova, Alesha Mukhlynin, Sofia Porunova. Their teacher Galina Victorovna Tarkhanova and parents helped the pupils. The aim of the research paper was to study the history of primers in Russia, peculiarities of primers of different historical periods. Students enjoyed taking part in project work, because they were given an excellent opportunity to find out the history of one of the most important children's book.

The results of pupils' project are really important not only for them personally, but also for their classmates, members of the school community, parents, teachers. Pupils tried to do all their best to make an interesting project. They learned much information from the books and the internet, found many pictures and illustrations, described Russian alphabet books from different times.

OUR SCHOOL LIFE

Great Victory - 72

We remember!

We are proud!

Monument to the Liberator Soldier in Sysert

This year we celebrate the 72nd anniversary of great Victory over Nazi Germany. At dawn on June 22, 1941, Hitler's armies attacked the Soviet Union without declaring war. The Great Patriotic war, which was to last about 4 years, had begun. 72 years have passed since that terrible war.

It has left unforgettable feelings not only on pages of war and historic documents, books and picture albums, but also in genetic memory of our people. No doubt, we must know our roots, the heroic past of our fellow countrymen. 70 years ago our Motherland was in fire. Millions of people suffered and died. But nevertheless people coped with everything, went through the trials and reached the victory reached independence and freedom from fascism. And it was the most important achievement that they could get. May 9 is a great holiday for all people. This holiday is dear for all the Russians!

Immortal Regiment March

Marches to commemorate the participants of World War II who fought against Nazi Germany are held across Russian cities and abroad. During the marches, people carry photographs of their ancestors who participated in the war.

The first Immortal Regiment march took place in 2012 in Tomsk. About 6,000 people marched along the city's central street with 2,000 photos of war veterans. A year later, another 120 cities and towns in Russia and several former Soviet republics held Immortal Regiment marches as well.

The total number of participants reached about 180,000 in 2013 and grew to half a million on May 9, 2014, as Immortal Regiment marches took place in more cities and villages. On May 9, 2015, the March on Tverskaya Street and further to Red Square in Moscow was led by Russian President Vladimir Putin, who carried a portrait of his father, a war veteran.

The Immortal Regiment of Russia, a national public civil-patriotic movement, was registered on October 5, 2015. The representatives of 60 Russian regions initiated its formation at their congress in Vyazma, a city of military glory in the Smolensk Region on June 2, 2015.

Speaking at a session of the Victory Organising Committee in early April 2016, the Russian president noted that the Immortal Regiment was an "absolutely honest and sincere project" that should retain these qualities and develop freely.

In 2017 the number of participants in the Ural Federal district was more than 600 thousand people.

"The year is expected to become a period of dictatorship of environmental legislation for industrial companies neglecting ecological safety. Our planet is the only place where a human being might live. That's why we have to take care of the Earth and look after our nature and surroundings as well as possible.

School online contests as a means of developing students' cognitive interest in learning English also acquire useful skills of making presentations of their research results and using arguments to support their ideas. The results of students' project works are really important not only for them personally, but also for their classmates, members of the school community, parents, teachers. So, students want to be successful and try to do all their best to win. The results of online contests can be seen on our websites, on the school stand and on the pages of school magazine "Friendship". Prize winners are awarded with diplomas.

Nowadays we can't imagine our everyday life without a computer. A great number of students work on computer every day. Computer technologies make up a big part of the whole educational process. Teaching tools based on the Internet are often used for gathering information. They also can make teaching process much more effective and entertaining.

Last year we began to carry out online contests in our school. I can say that they help to accelerate learning process, giving it a research, creative nature. They give students the opportunity to take initiative in organizing their cognitive activity. Online contests are one of the most efficient and at the same time entertaining form of out-of-class activities. They help teachers to create conditions that ensure the identification, support and development of intellectually gifted children, the realization of their potential. On the other hand, they help backward pupils to train English and to improve it during their work on projects.

Information about our school online contests is presented on the websites: <http://onlinecontests.pedmix.ru/>, <http://www.uchportfolio.ru/elenavatoropina>.

Here all the participants of educational process (students, their parents, teachers) can acquaint themselves with the contest materials and results of contests.

This activity meets the following requirements: the interests and needs of children are taken into account; much attention is given to well-known collaboration technology which can be applied successfully in learning English through out-of-class activities.

School online contests provide a wide range of competitions and give students a real possibility of choosing a topic of the project work. Students enjoy taking part in school online contests, because they give them an excellent opportunity to express themselves and improve their knowledge of English grammar and vocabulary. In this activity students

Students' works (multimedia presentations, compositions, poems, essays) or parts of them are often used in our lessons for teaching different language skills. To be able to find quickly and submit the required material, I created "Constructor of the lesson" – my "Golden key" <http://uchportfolio.ru/elenavatoropina/?page=8385>.

School online contests have been implemented in the classroom and extra-curriculum activities. They offer a lot of opportunities to make the teaching process more effective and entertaining both for teachers and students. Our school online contests have become a great part of our school life.

My hobby is English

Learning a foreign language is not an easy thing. It is a long and slow process that takes a lot of time and efforts. Nowadays it is especially important to know foreign languages. Some people learn languages because they need them for their work, others travel abroad, for the third studying languages is a hobby. Everyone, who knows foreign languages can speak to people from other countries, read foreign writers in the original, which makes your outlook wider.

I study English. Nowadays English has become the world's most important language in politics, science, trade and cultural relations. Over 300 million people speak it as a mother tongue. The native speakers of English live in Great Britain, the United States of America, Australia and New Zealand. English is one of the official languages in the Irish Republic, Canada, the South Africa Republic. Half of the world's scientific literature is in English. It is the language of computer technology. To know English today is absolutely necessary for every educated person, for every good specialist. The English language is a wonderful language. It is the language of the great literature. It is the language of William Shakespeare and Charles Dickens.

The great German poet Goethe once said, "He, who knows no foreign language, does not know his own one". That is why in order to understand oneself and environment one has to study foreign languages.

is a form of self-defence technique that requires a good balance between body and mind. The word "karate" means playing "empty handed". So, apart from physical power, one needs to learn various playing tactics to have a cutting edge over others.

Kirill Laptev, a pupil of the 1st grade, loves sport very much. He began going in for karate at the age of 4. Kirill has a blue belt now. His trainer Alexey Petrovich Dubinov Kirill's says that karate is a great way to learn self-defence, respect, self-control and patience. The lessons are physically hard and it takes some muscle to handle some of the exercises that sportsmen do there.

Kirill took part in many competitions in Sysert and Yekaterinburg. He became the winner and prize winner many times. He has a great number of medals, cups and diplomas.

Kirill has the autograph of the World Champion Alexandr Eryomenko and is very proud of it. He dreams to become a champion, too!

No coward plays hockey!*

NO COWARD PLAYS HOCKEY!

Ice hockey is a contact team sport played on ice, usually in a rink, in which two teams of skates use their sticks to shoot a vulcanized rubber puck into their opponent's net to score points. The sport is known to be fast-paced and physical, with teams usually consisting of six players each.

Ivan Emelyanov, a pupil of the 1st grade, began going in for hockey at the age of 6. His team took part in competitions in Yekaterinburg, Sysert, Ufa, etc. and won many of them. Ivan has trainings for times a week. He respects his trainer Denis Leonidovich and wants to be like him.

Ivan's team is very friendly!

Nikita Yatsenko, 3G

Summer

There are four seasons in a year: summer, autumn, winter and spring. My favourite season is summer. The sun shines brightly, the sky is blue. It's usually hot, but sometimes it's rainy, windy, and stormy. There are many berries, fruit and vegetables.

Summer is the time of long school holidays. Children have nothing to do. They have a good time. They play games, walk in the forest, swim and get sunbathe. I also enjoy my free time, playing with my friends, reading, and doing other fun activities.

Olga Vaganova, 5A

Spring

My favourite season is spring. March, April and May are spring months. Spring comes and nature awakens from its winter sleep. In spring trees are green. The birds sing songs and build their nests. The days are warm and sunny.

I have birthday in May, so I like this month very much! Victory Day is celebrated on the 9th of May. It's one of the most important holiday in Russia. I usually go to the parade with my family.

Sasha Akulinichev, 3C

EVERY SEASON IS GOOD IN ITS OWN WAY

In winter, it's cold and snowy. The weather is nice! I go for a walk and play snowballs with my friends. When it's frosty (-25-30 degrees) we spend much time at home. Pupils don't go to school. They watch TV, play computer games, listen to music, and talk to each other. Last winter I caught a cold and was sick for 2 months. I don't like to be ill.

I like summer, too. I can swim in the river and sunbathe. In summer, the weather is hot and sunny. Sometimes it is rainy and stormy. The air is fresh. The sky is blue. The trees and the grass are green. The sun shines brightly. Children have summer holidays. They play football and volleyball.

I like all the seasons. Every season is good in its own way. But I like winter and summer most of all!

Maxim Tyotkin, 6B

My favourite season is autumn. By the way, in America they call it fall. I like the early autumn because it has a lot of colours. Red, yellow, orange, and brown leaves fall down from the trees. The weather is usually pleasant with a warm nice breeze blowing and a few white clouds in the blue sky. The sun is not very hot any more. Autumn is the time for fruit and vegetables.

I don't like when it rains in autumn. But after dirty autumn months winter comes. I like winter, because it is white with snow.

Projects. Investigations

One of the most famous Russian writers is Pavel Petrovich Bazhov. He is our countryman. P. P. Bazhov was born in Sysert and lived there for some years. Both children and adults read Bazhov's tales with a great interest. Every reader can find in his tales something unusual and engaging, charming and instructive, informative and picturesque. We read his tales and liked them very much.

The aim of our project: To motivate our schoolmates to read P. Bazhov's tales as much as it possible.

For that it was necessary to do the following tasks:

- to find the most interesting facts from P. Bazhov's biography and visit Sysert Museum of P. Bazhov;
- to describe some of the main heroes of his books;
- to make a list of the most wide-known P. Bazhov's tales;
- to draw the portraits of the most interesting characters how we imagine them and to held the school exhibition of pupils' paintings and art works devoted to Bazhov's tales;
- to publish our work in school magazine "Friendship".

Pavel Petrovich Bazhov is the founder of the Urals skaz. Bazhov was born in our home town Sysert. His father Pyotr Bazhov was the master of the welding shop of the Sysertskaa Steel Plant. His family, like most in factory towns, struggled to make ends meet. From these beginnings, Bazhov found a calling in public service. Between 1889 and 1893 he studied in a religious school in Yekaterinburg. He worked as a teacher of the Russian language and Literature, first in Yekaterinburg, then in Kamyshev. From 1907 to 1914 Bazhov worked at the Women's Diocesan College teaching Russian language. During this time he met and married Valentina Ivanitskaya, a graduate from the Diocesan School. She was his muse for many of his poems about love and happiness. There were seven children in their family.

Our class visited Sysert Museum of P. Bazhov. It is one of the main town's tourist attractions. P. Bazhov lived there in 1879-1880, 1885-1890. As P. Bazhov wrote, his childhood memories had a great impact on his works. Many of the characters of his tales were from his life in Sysert. Pavel Petrovich Bazhov wrote many fairy-tales dedicated to the Urals and local craftsmen. The museum holds many unique objects of Russian people daily life of the 19th and early 20th centuries. The exhibits include works made by gifted local artists and also kitchen utensils, spinning wheels, weaving loom, Russian sledges and other objects created by anonymous folk craftsmen. The residents of Sysert (among them many children) and tourists often visit Bazhov's museum.

P. Bazhov's life was very difficult, but his tales are full of goodness and belief in justice.

Pavel Bazhov is best known for his collection of fairy tales "The Malachite Box", based on Ural folklore and published in the Soviet Union in 1939. In 1944, the translation of the collection into English was published in New York City and London. Later Sergey Prokofiev created the ballet "The Tale of the Stone Flower" based on one of the tales.

All P. Bazhov's tales have realistic basis. They are full of life. Their heroes have the Urals character and Urals language. They love their native land and try to do all their best to find and show its beauty.
